

5 SPELLING PATTERNS FOR LONG <I> SOUND

| iopen syllables | ie | igh | y | i_e |
|----------------------------|-----------|------------|----------|------------|
| ti/tle                     | tie       | high       | my       | ice        |
| i/dle                      | die       | thigh      | fry      | bike       |
| pi/per                     | lie       | sigh       | dry      | nice       |
| bri/dal                    | pie       | nigh       | try      | dice       |
| tri/bal                    |           | night      | cry      | like       |
| pi/lot                     |           | fight      | shy      | side       |
| ri/fle                     |           | tight      | ply      | bribe      |

Practice your words here:

|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |

Silly Sentence

I cannot tell a lie<sup>1</sup> wearing a tie<sup>2</sup> that I can die<sup>3</sup> for a pie<sup>4</sup>.